

Scott Whitaker

Accounting Manager

Scott joined the Institute for Defense and Business in 2014 and serves as the Accounting Manager. He is responsible for day to day accounting operations and financial reporting.

Prior to joining the IDB team, Scott held various accounting positions in public and private companies. He has over 25 years of experience working with financial, audits, budgeting, and cash flow management.

Scott earned a BA in Business Management from North Carolina State University.