

Pearson Cost
Program Associate

Pearson Cost is a Program Associate for the Institute for Defense and Business (IDB). In this role, he assists with the planning, design, and delivery of several educational programs, including Industry Based Broadening in Logistics (IB2: Log) and Logistics for the 21st Century (Log 21).

Pearson graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in Political Science and a minor in Peace and Justice Studies from Gettysburg College in 2019.