

Scott Whitaker

Senior Accountant

Scott joined the Institute for Defense and Business in 2014 and serves as Senior Accountant. He is responsible for day to day accounting operations and financial reporting.

Prior to joining the IDB team, Scott held various accounting positions in public and private companies. He has over 15 years of experience working with financials, audits, budgeting, and cash flow management.

Scott earned a BA in Business Management from North Carolina State University.