

Cameshia S. Williams

Program Associate

Cameshia Williams joined the Institute for Defense and Business in February of 2022. As a Program Associate, she assists with planning, design, and delivery of executive education programs for the military and private sector. Cameshia coordinates programs such as the Aviation Industrial Readiness Program (AIR-P), Life Cycle Executive Leadership Program (LCELP), and Industry Based Broadening: Logistics (IB2 Log).

Cameshia graduated with a Bachelor of Art's degree in Political Science with double minors in Sociology and Women's and Gender Studies from Coastal Carolina University in 2021. Cameshia is currently pursuing a Master's of Public Administration degree at Delaware State University,