

Patience Foster

Program Associate

Ms. Patience Foster joined the Institute for Defense and Business in June 2022. As a Program Associate, she assists with the development, design, and delivery of executive education programs for military and private sectors.

Patience is currently coordinating and executing the Industry Based Broadening: Logistics (IB2 Log) program and the Advanced Program in Logistics & Technology (LOGTECH Advanced) program.

Ms. Foster graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Public Policy and Peace, War, and Defense with a minor in Spanish for the legal Professions from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2022.